

The Carol Anne Letheren Leadership and Sport Scholarship is a national, three-year, 1,500 per year, university scholarship, founded to honour the memory of Carol Anne Letheren (1942-2001). As Chief Executive Officer of the Canadian Olympic Committee (COC) and an International Olympic Committee member for Canada, Carol Anne was an avid believer and promoter of the Canadian Olympic values.

To be eligible for the Carol Anne Letheren Leadership and Sport Scholarship, applicants must:

- Be a female student enrolled at a Canadian high school (private or public) in her graduate year.
- Be applying to a Canadian University or College in a program with an emphasis in Business, Sport Management, or Marketing related fields.
- Demonstrate qualities and personal values that personify the Olympic values of excellence, leadership, respect, human development, fun, fairness, and peace.
- Have outstanding academic performance; minimum grade average of 85% or above.
- Be an accomplished athlete in high school, community or provincial level or higher competitive sports.
- Be a citizen or permanent resident of Canada.

For further information about the Carol Anne Letheren Scholarship, check out the website at <http://coa.ca/Youth/default2.htm> or call 416-962-0262

French translations of this scholarship information and applications are available at www.aoc.ca/Youth/default2.htm